ONE LINE

Theorbo, didgeridoo, electric guitar and voice: Morgan Remaj plays an ethno-neoclassical solo show from Berlin and St. Gallen.

SHORT BIO

Morgan Remaj is an Australian-Croatian artist based in Berlin and St. Gallen. In one solo show he moves between theorbo, didgeridoo, electric guitar and voice, instruments from different centuries and corners of the world. Since 2021 he has played more than 200 shows, from Openair St. Gallen to the Ferrara Buskers Festival. His debut album arrives in 2027.

FULL BIO

After honing his craft as a plucked-string virtuoso at conservatories in Perth, San Francisco, Paris and Basel, in both modern and historical repertoire, Morgan Remaj now works within an ethno-neoclassical language of his own. A time traveller across centuries and cultures, he performs solo concerts on theorbo, didgeridoo, electric guitar and vocals. He is based in Berlin and St. Gallen.

Having played over 200 shows since 2021 across Germany, Switzerland, France, Belgium and Australia, Remaj frequently stuns audiences at festivals and venues across the European circuit with his tour de force shows.

His debut album comes out in 2027.
